Genl W. W. Murray

Dear Sir.

Your letter was duly recd. and it gave me much pleasure to hear that your health was improving, hope it may continue until you are fully restored to health again. I should have written you before but expected Amittell to turn up every day worthy of note and he moves to you.
Our Regt. is the same quarters when we were when you left and a getting along well although we have been very short for officers in the line but managed to get along so far. The Gov. refuses to Commission
