

Camp in the Field
7 miles from Richmond
June, 7th 1862

Lieut. W. W. Henry:

Dear Sir:

As we are on the eve of the final
"decisive battle" I seize the moment to give some account of things lest the chances of war should cut me off, and interfere with my little plans.

You are kept
better informed of our past movements through the daily press
than I could do it.