

Letter No 8

Camp Near Culpappers
Oct. 4th/63

Dear Father, Mother & Brothers; It has now been a week since I wrote to you, I have received no letter since I came here except a paper that came this morning. I have not read it much yet, have not had time, but I noticed the death of Mr Robinson & Otis. It must be a lonely house. The Depository was a welcome visit or I have not had many papers to read. I suppose of course you have written & I shall probably get a letter before you do. This, I wrote in my last that we were under marching orders well we did not move until the last Friday morning when we
