

Letters No 22

Brandy Station Va Feb 1862 Parents & Brethren; I rec'd yours of the 9th & hope that ere this you have got another from me, nothing of any importance has happened since I wrote last but I thought it was about time to write again, my health is good & I hope this will find you all in good health also, Dea is not very well now; his leg is troubling him some at present, the surgeon tells him he cant do much for it anyway, Swift is well as usual, we were paid off today
I wrote the last time I rec'd $26.00, I shall send some money home soon, by express, but I will before writ
