

Comp of ~~C. P.~~ Regt, Nov, 1861

Dear Home,

As John has at last written, it will do for me to write hoping that he will not need to feel so much responsibility to make him write again. I am called up very early this morning by the first death in the regiment, that of Mrs Fallon of Roxbury who had the measles and was taken suddenly in the night with congestion of the lungs.