

I don't know but Mr. Williams says that I might see in a place, but I don't like to write to them myself

Dear Home

I have not heard from any of you for so long that I fear matter is worse or that some other one of you is sick. When I shall hear from you tomorrow.

I believe it is about a fortnight since I sent a letter including Mr. Hulsey's check for four hundred dollars, and I have written two or three times since, but perhaps the letters were kept back.

I saw the men and officers so depressed
