Dear Home

We were very glad to receive three letters from home last night, although all were in one envelope, & especially so at finding one in mother's own handwriting. We were very sorry to hear that Mary was unwell. Is she much so? Tell her she must get well quick, for I don't know but I shall come home before long to see her if I can do without its costing much. At any rate I want that she should get well & write me a letter. We were very glad to hear that Maria is doing so well.
