

Head Qrs. 4th Reg. Vt. Id. in Camp near Alexandria Nov. 23rd 1861

Dear Principall

We still stop here with the expectation of leaving very soon. And as the weather is quite rainy and muddy it makes no feel with our present rule a accommodation rather many it rains most of the time and our tents wetting through quite easily it keeps us here most of the time. the most remarkable thing about it is that most of us are in better health than when we left Camp Griffin. But we are not instructed by the bad air of heated rooms out driving
