

Camp in the Field

near Richmond June 14th 1862

No Moor of Camp since my last Probably you are looking at every paper anxious and impatient to see when the Battle of Richmond is to take place The Battle is going on every Day and has been since the 31st of May but it is as much a running with Brains as Steel and Lead McClellan accomplishes more by Strategy and Superior Skill in planning than with the bayonet and bullet. The Battle of Richmond is daily and nightly going on by cautions and gradual advances from different points

The Camp of the 4th & 5th Regiments are within 100 Rods of the Enemis outposts and nothing but the
