My dear Wife:-

I have rec'd yours of the 22^d, you think if I would mention some passage in your letter you would know if I rec'd them. I don't know of any thing better than the date which I always mention. If you would keep a memorandum of your letters you could then tell readily enough if I rec'd them. Some of your letters seem to be a long time coming this comes right along like the last one I have rec'd. Another thing I answer all of your letters that I rec'd within 24 hours after receiving them. I did send the stamp and you have my sincere thanks for them. I disliked to mark my letters "Soldiers letters" but I had to quite a number. It seems by
