

Neamstown Va 4 miles South from Winchester. Nov 14th 1864.

My dear Wife.

I have nothing of interest to write only that I am well. though I have been sick since I wrote last, but it did not last but a few hours - all right now. We are having very pleasant weather, but cold for this climate. We manage to keep comfortable most of the time.

I am still at the Div Hospital having charge of it. The duty is a pleasant one but more arduous than taking care of the regt.
For the last 3 or 4 days we have been expecting a big old fight - but it resulted in a little skirmishing.
The excitement to us in the rear can hardly be imagined by those
