

Camp Holbrook -

Brattleboro Vt.

Sept. 30th 61

Dear Sister

I shall write you a line to day so that you will get it tomorrow if you should not come down. There is nothing new in particular to write.

We are here still, and do not know anything more about going than we did the day we came. Tho' they tell us we are going tomorrow, but we have heard that some stay for some time. They say we are going to be mustered into the service to day but I do