My dear Sister

I recd. the letter which you & Gizzie wrote last Friday, a few days since, and as I have not written you for a number of days will do so to day. The letters for Co. C. are given me every night to distribute and I feel disappointed if I do not find one for myself almost every night. I cannot complain much however, for I get many letters, more than any one in the Co. I guess unless it is lost Barrett. We were expecting that there would be
