Dear Sister

I will write you a line to night, as I wish to say in regard to the tale of cutting I wrote to the folks to send the other day, that if they have not already done so they need not. There is more than a fair prospect that we do not stop here much longer tho' it is still possible that we stop here longer or perhaps all winter.
You know we know nothing.

The talk is quite strong that the 15th & 16th go to New York, & go with the Texas expedition; it may be all
