

Camp Near Fairfax ^{B.H.}
Dec 28th 1862

My dear Sister

I recd your letter of last Sunday, as I generally do, Wednesday, & will write a line this P.M. in answer.

When I last wrote the Capt & Williams were both sick, they have not yet gone on duty but are nearly well again & will return to duty tomorrow, (Monday). — There is nothing new, nothing interesting to write, but I know you are anxious to hear from us so we write once in about as often.

I am glad father has sold the land across the flat, if he thinks best he can sell go to Mr. Craig & if ever I should
