Dear Sister

This is a beautiful sabbath morning in a beautiful country. I am thinking that you at home are preparing for church at Perkinsville about this time. I am sitting here in the Chamber of an old deserted house writing home. We are still stopping here guarding the bridges as I wrote you before. St. Ellett stays at the Kettle Run bridge all the time now & I stop here with Co. E. — This is not
