Dear Sister -

I have written you nearly every day for the last week for the reason, I had nothing else to do, so if the letters don't amount to much you must consider that I wrote them not because I had any thing to write, but because I had nothing to do, but to write. -

We got a nice shower last night so to day it is quite cool & comfortable, & not at all dusty, - The 1st Brigade encamped last night at the Court House; whether they are going to stay there any length of time or not, I do not know.

Don't know what has become
