

Camp Near Berlin Md.

July 16th 1863.

My Dear Sister -

Thinking so much of the 23rd of July, you see I came near dating my letter ahead to that time; never mind I can soon date my letters that way, & have them correct.

I shall not probably write you many more letters before I come home, as we have only six days longer to cross the U.S.

I wrote you yesterday from Williamsport, or near there, but as there is no certainty of all my letters reaching you I write every time I can do so conveniently if it be every day.

We are about two miles from Berlin, which place is a few
