My own darling Angel,

I just rec'd yr letter fr A. G. With my angel I was there with you - I hope you will have a good time - but please remember your own husbands likes & dislikes - You know how somebody undertook to flist there once & how serious it became so you must be careful & not try the experiment again.

What should I do without you & all your love & devotion. I live on these things & should die without them - You ought to remember that I made no exception when I asked you to be familiar with no gentlemen - but perhaps you can remember some exceptions & that is why I get moody & feel badly sometimes. You know Mrs. A. dont think many things improper for a married lady to do, that your husband does, & you know my pet whom you
