My own sweet Angel wife

I am real glad you are having such good times but I almost fear I am paying very dearly for them - I thought you would have plenty of time to write me some long and splendid letters fr N. C. but they are not half as long or good as fr home. Somebody seems to engross yr time & attention so you have to neglect yr husband. Is Miss A. selecting you a second husband? I thought to remember that devotion to the first one is the best recommendation in the world to the second.

My own angel, the whole world & every thing in it is a mere bawble in comparison with you, in my estimation. Yr love I regard more than anything on earth except my honor. & I dont know as I would except that were it not for losing your love with my honor. I think every day & night
