My Darling Wife -

I have not written to you for several days as I did not know how to make a letter reach you. I rec'd yr letter fr Marblehead house I think it was. I think you did not get all my letters addressed to you in Boston. Am glad you have been having such good times, & are so well. I should like to be with you, I should not care where we were. I should only want to see you my sweet-angel. I dreamed about you last night. It was the best dream I ever had. I had such a good time it woke me up - Darling when shall I see you. I must soon
