

Washington D.C.

Oct 29th 1862

My own Angel Wife

I rec'd yr
letter with Mr. Tripp's to-day,
He is over with the 11th Cavalry
We move over to Fort Seward Va, to-morrow.
Am sorry as I was getting
my camp into shape.
We arrived here on Monday at 9 1/2 A.M.
Had a pleasant trip until
we arrived at Baltimore,
there it rained & we had miserable cattle cars & it was cold and disagreeable.
But on the whole it was a pleasant journey. We got into camp on Monday at East Capitol Hill.