

July 31 1892

Dear Gramma. I was very sorry to hear Uncle Harrison was dead there were I wrote because I loved him very well, they are the first wires I ever composed, I think at some time since you wrote to me (Miss Sampson wrote of these wires for me) <sup>your</sup> Grampapa well + all the rest of your family + Uncle Keno folks well. I am well + so is papa + mam Augusta + Grampapa + Gramma. My school is a very good school we have very good school mistress. I should like to have you and Grampapa and Harty come and see me. give my love and best respects to all. goodbye from your affectionate Granddaughter
Frances O Carter
