

VERMONT SOLDIER.

McCLELLAN now who takes command,
Will lead us down to Dixie's land;
And there, "live or die, survive or perish,"
We'll sustain the flag we ever cherish.

Away down in Dixie.

That those who may hereafter come,
Will have nought to say what we have done;
For the VERMONT BOYS, they are the crew
To raise the STRIPES, red, white and blue.
Away down in Dixie.

Dear Sister

I received your day before yesterday and hasten to answer it -
I was sorry to learn that so many were sick in Essex. I am in hopes that Uncle Lyman folks are better give them
my best respects when you see them. I hope that you or Carrie will not have the measles
so take care of yourself.
