Dear Sister

I am going to write a few lines to you this P.M. to let you know that I have not forgotten my dear little sister and to let you know that I am well as usual and hope that the folks at home are all well also. For the last two or three days the wind had blown hard all the time and it has been pretty cold but the wind has gone down some and it is quite pleasant this P.M. so that I can write without freezing my fingers. We left our Camp
