What's PFLAG and Why?

Parents and Friends of Lesbians and Gays (PFLAG) is a national organization that helps families understand their gay family member(s) and is totally committed to educating the community at large.

To accomplish these purposes PFLAG does many different activities. They publish and distribute educational materials including newsletters, articles, and booklets. They do mass mailings of packets to various institutions, such as the military, counselors, university dormitories, nursing schools, physicians, PTAs, libraries, churches and synagogues. PFLAG speaks out! They also operate hotlines to help distressed people and their families.

Kathy Wade is a contact parent in the Rutland area. Out in the Mountains has asked Kathy to tell us what PFLAG has been for her. In Kathy's words:

"To me it has let me be who I am, openly. I don't flaunt the fact that I have a son that is gay, but I don't feel alone or that I need to be shunned by anyone or make excuses for him. I've always loved him deeply and known he was a special person because of his compassion, kindness and talents.

Yes, at first I browbeat myself and cried. Through PFLAG, by giving them our phone number we have talked with
