Integrity Plans Busy Summer

Integrity Burlington, a social and po-litical group for lesbianand gay Episcopalians and their friends, met on May 7th to plan summer activities. As in past sum-mers, program offerings will include a film series and light activities to promote fel-lowship in a non-threatening environment. The programs will follow an Episcopal Mass that begins at 7:55 p.m. on the first and third Saturdays of each month. All lesbians, gays and their friends are invited and encouraged to attend the events listed below.

The movie Satiricon by Felleni will be shown on June 4. Brush up on your summer lawn games by joining in the fun of "Cro-quet and Lemonade in the Rose Garden, Gay '90's Style" on June 18.

A passion for preparing the latest rec-ipe for Boston Baked Beans or a new twist to green party salad? Share your culinary skills and satiate that appetite for the un-usual. Bring a dish and celebrate at Integrity's Annual July 4th picnic on Satur-day, July 2.

A special folk mass with music per-formed by Elizabeth Alexander is planned for July 16. Warm up your singing voice for a folk sing after the service.

Pop some corn, kick off your shoes and get ready for a movie on August 7. Parting Glances or Maurice will be offered.

Practice the hula for an evening of fun in the Islands. The service and cook-out for August 20 will be at Andy's in Grand Isle. Call 655-1301 for more information and directions.

Lesbian Social Club
