Alternative Political Literature

The following is a short list of alternative political literature, referred to in When Least Worst isn't Good Enough in the October issue of "OITM". Most of the topics center around the Greens and social-ecology.

The Green Alternative/Creating an Ecological Future, Brian Tokar, R & E Miles, CA., 1987

The Ecology of Freedom, Murray Bookchin, Cheshire Books, Palo Alto, CA., 1982

Deep Ecology, Edited by Michael Tobias, Avant Books, San Diego, CA., 1984

Green Politics, Charlene Spretnak & Fitjof Capra, Bear & Co., Santa Fe, NM., 1986

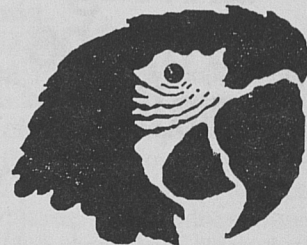

The Death of Nature: Women, Ecology and the Scientific Revolution, Carolyn Merchant, Harper and Row, San Francisco, CA., 1980

Fire in the Americas, Forging a Revolutionary Agenda, Roger Burbach and Orlando Nunez, Verso, 1987

A good source for a wide variety of literature is The War Resisters League, 339 Lafayette St., New York, NY. 10012. They publish a literature list with many excellent titles pertaining to alternative politics. The October 1988 issue of Vermont Woman has an article on Ecofeminism by Stephanie Lohar, and an interview by Peggy Luhrs of Ynestra King who has been teaching at the Institute for Social Ecology in Plainfield since 1976. Also, check out the Peace and Justice Center Library and the Maverick Media Center, both in Burlington.
