

Lesbian GALA a Night of Fun

by Susan Richardson

September 16th was a night of fun and inspiration thanks to the Lesbian Gala Celebration held at City Hall in Burlington. The event was intended as both a tuition fundraiser for Leah Wittenberg and as an opportunity to celebrate the culture and talents of our lesbian community.

Among the varied entertainment were original songs by singer/songwriter Jaime Morton, a skit on the perils of bra-buying by "The Gay Panthers," readings of original writings by Phyllis Sawyer and Gwen Shervington and performances by Matrix (traditional Eastern European music and Kwanzaa Percussion Ensemble.

Hopefully the $1300 grossed by the show will be enough to ensure that it becomes an annual event. The evening left performers and audience alike with a sense of pride in the talent and spirit of our community.

Lesbian Social Club

Third Saturday Soiree is a monthly potluck social for lesbians and friends. Each month, this gathering will be held at a participating womyn's household to offer a social alternative for area wimmin. Third Saturday Soiree is an event to discover and celebrate womyn's art, music, poetry, and culture, in hopes of creating a womyn's space in the future. For info, call Autumn at 865-DYKE. All wimmin are welcome.

More MOW pictures. Try to remember that time in October!
