VT C.A.R.E.S. Benefit

On Sunday, February 12, Brian Fisher and Harry Russell will host a Vermont C.A.R.E.S. benefit at the Russell farm in Hinesburg. They will be offering horse drawn sleigh rides, and request a $5-10 donation per person. All proceeds will go to VT. C.A.R.E.S.

The rides are approximately forty minutes long and will travel through woods and pastureland. In addition, there is plenty of room for cross-country skiing, etc. Refreshments will be provided and reservations are required. Phone 482-2498 for information and reservations. Up to twelve people can be accommodated per trip.

LSC Now WOW

A group of energetic lesbians got together to plan some social events last summer. The positive energy generated has led to many enjoyable times, and new women attend each event. A group with such potential deserved a better name than the Lesbian Social Club, so they've become Women of the Woods.

W.O.W. has scheduled events such as potlucks and parties at women's homes, as well as hiking and skiing out there in the woods. Are you curious or interested in W.O.W.'s winter schedule? See calendar listing. Call 229-0109 with any questions.

Slide Show

Gwen Shervington, a member of Kwanzaa, Inc. (a collective of Vermont residents who promote and affirm the value of intercultural sharing and awareness), will present a slideshow and discussion on her 3 month experience in Zambia, Africa, on the following dates:

January 19, 1989. 3:30 p.m. University of Vermont. International Lounge, Living/Learning Center B-180.

January 20, 1989. 8 p.m. Maverick Media Center. 209 College Street.

To Be Announced. Presentation on Women in Zambia. City Hall, Burl. Sponsored by the Burlington Women's Council.
