Gay National News

National Privacy Day Activities Planned

A national organizing campaign is underway to commemorate the third anniversary, on June 30, 1989, of the Supreme Court's decision in Bowers v. Hardwick. The campaign, called the National Day of Mourning for the Right to Privacy, is organized by the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force (NGLTF) Privacy Project and CRY OUT!, Pittsburgh's lesbian/gay action group.

Detailed organizing packets on Hardwick and sodomy laws have been prepared and mailed to more than 500 organizations and individuals across the country. Packets include suggested events, background information, flyers, posters and stickers bearing the National Day of Mourning logo of a red broken heart over black jail bars. Persons interested in obtaining packets or organizing an event in their home communities are urged to contact their local political groups or NGLTF.

For more information on the National Day of Mourning, please contact NGLTF-NDOM, 1517 U Street NW, Washington DC 20009.

NGLTF Conference

Continuing the innovative programming that characterized its annual conference last year, the National Gay & Lesbian Task Force (NGLTF) announced its CREATING CHANGE conference for grassroots activists and gay and lesbian organizations. The conference will be held from November 9-12, 1989 in the greater Washington area at the Holiday Inn, Bethesda, MD.

The conference is committed to being accessible to all organizations and activists. Workshops will be interpreted for the hearing impaired, and the facility for the conference is wheelchair accessible. Registration fees range from $50-100, Holiday Inn rates from $68-78 (roomate matching will be offered). For registration information, write NGLTF CREATING CHANGE, 1517 U Street NW, DC 20009.

NGLTF Announces National Lobby Days During June

Constituents who support gay and lesbian civil rights will lobby Members of Congress at home district offices across the country for the first time in the four-year history of the National Lobby Days for Lesbian and Gay Rights. The National Lobby Days focus on the lesbian and gay rights agenda in Congress and are organized by the National Gay & Lesbian Task Force.

NGLTF has prepared Lobby Days Action Pckets to assist constituents in their Congressional lobbying. The packets include the cosponsor and voting records of the Members of Congress being lobbied, fact sheets on all Congressional lesbian and gay rights legislation, updated legislative summaries, sample letters, information on "How To" arrange an office visit, write a letter and phone a legislator, as well as a
