Lesbian/Gay/Bisexual Film Festival Planned for June '93 in Montpelier

Larry Wolf

Focus on Film is planning a Lesbian/Gay/Bisexual Film Festival at the Savoy Theater in Montpelier for June 18 - 24, the week before Pride Day. Sponsors include Out in the Mountains and the Lesbian/Gay/Bisexual Alliance of Goddard College. The Festival planners hope to schedule as many as ten films for the week, with two films each evening and a special late night feature on Friday and Saturday nights.

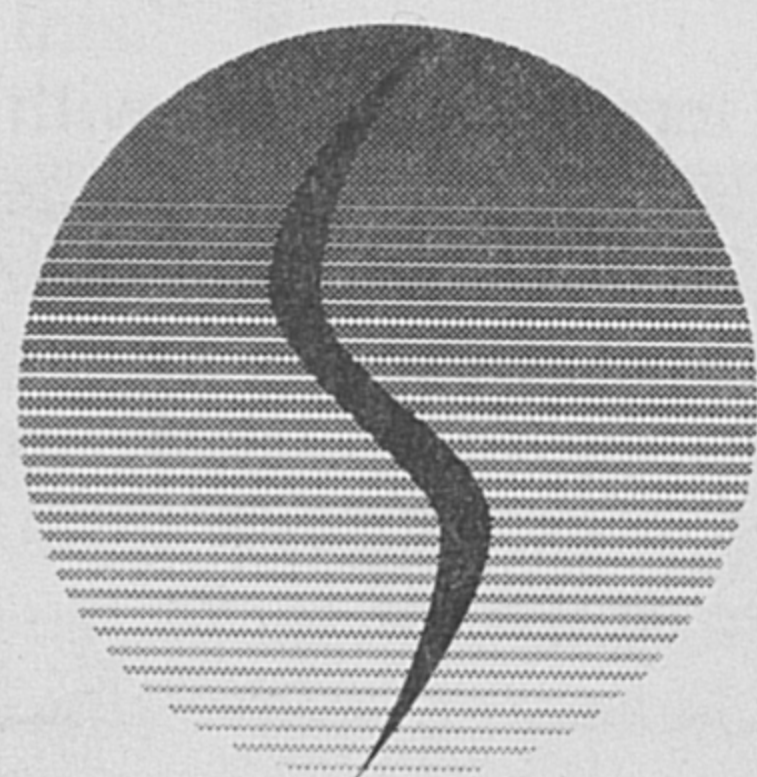

The Festival will feature independently made and otherwise rarely seen films. The following film titles are very tentative and intended to get people thinking, they are not a commitment to show these films. Documentaries, such as Voices from the Front (about AIDS activism), Last Call at Maud's (a history of San Francisco's famed lesbian bar); features, such as Together Alone, Swoon, Mala Noche; classics, such as

Sunday Bloody Sunday, The Children's Hour. There is the possibility of getting the Canadian film Salmonberries, starring kd lang.

The Festival has received a grant from the Green Mountain Fund for Popular Struggle for $3,500. While this grant is very generous, it covers just under half the cost of the Festival. As a result, there will be additional fund raising activities including soliciting for business sponsors and advertising in the program notes.

If you would like to work on the Festival, have suggestions about films to be shown, know of organizations which might contribute resources to the Festival, or just want to pass on your comments, contact Rick Winston, Andrea Seroto, or Gary Ireland at the Savoy Theater (229-0598, 223-0050). ▼
