To Whom it May Concern,

Make a difference! The International Gay and Lesbian Human Rights Commission (IGLHRC) Pen-Pal Project is looking for men and women interested in corresponding with gays and lesbians in Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union. Make gay and lesbian friends in foreign lands, check out other peoples and cultures, and help build rainbow bridges of solidarity. Let's piece together a quilt of pink veils on the rubble of the Iron Curtain. To join us, send a brief description of yourself and who you would like as a pen-pal to:

IGLHRC Pen-Pal Project, 520 Castro Street, San Francisco, CA, 94114

Dear Editor,

I am responding to Paul Olsen's Outing in the Mountains. "Ethically", "outists" justify their actions by arguing that the exposure of fraud outweighs the potential harm to the individual.

What presumption! How a lesbian, gay, or bisexual wishes to struggle with their sexuality is a totally personal matter. To bully a person into coming out is like pushing someone off a diving board when it is known they can't swim.

Sexuality is a deep and delicate matter, to be treated with gentleness.

Sincerely,

Ann Stokes

To the Editor,

For some time I have been interested in establishing a Vermont chapter of the NEA Gay/Lesbian/Bisexual Caucus. Several of you share that interest. I would like to meet briefly with interested parties, following the May 1 equity workshop at the Comfort Inn in Barre to discuss formation of such a chapter. I will have NEA bi-laws, guidelines, and membership forms available. If you can not attend the May 1st meeting, feel free to call me at 436-2038.

Sincerely,

Barbara Barbour
