

Pride Week Events, June 18th-23rd

Lesbian, Bisexual, Gay Film Festival

Friday June 18th - Thurs June 24th,
Savoy Theatre, Montpelier

Same World, Different Channel : An evening of short fiction by Gay writers

Wed. June 23rd, 6-8pm

Chassman and Bem Booksellers

Church street Marketplace, Burlington

Out on Stage Theater Group presents "Pride's Place" An Original Real-to-life comedy-drama (Five performances!)

▼ Saturday June 5th, 7 pm,

Brattleboro Union High School

▼ Saturday June 12th, 2 pm, Catamount Film
and Arts Center, St. Johnsbury

▼ Saturday June 19th, 7pm Rutland Playhouse at East Creek Center, Rutland

▼ Friday, June 25th: 7 pm, 9 pm (two shows!)

Contois Auditorium, Burlington

Pride Day Events, Saturday, June 26th

NOON March Kickoff and Rally

Unitarian Church, top of Church Street
Marketplace

1pm Parade and March through Downtown Burlington

Floats: Decorate your truck, boat, or shopping cart (and let us know ahead of time!!)

Contingents: Dykes on Bikes, Moms and Tykes, P-FLAG, Gay Vets, Bisexuals and others. Bring your banner!

Marching Band: Its not to late to Join: Get those instruments out of the closet and call Peter 878-1123

Baton Twirlers: We need you!!

2-6pm Rally at Battery Park, with music, comedy, community speakers and more.

Ride With Pride: Take the Bus from major Vermont communities!

Contact Leah 655-6312 • Ellie 223-3557 • Kelly 234-5009

Rain Location for post-March Rally: Contois Auditorium, 2pm.

For more information contact 655-6312 or write Pride '93. P.O. Box 1752, Burlington, VT 05402

Rally Performers include:

Sara Cytron: New Directions for Women calls Sara "side splittingly, howlingly funny. She is political and her comedy is cutting edge." With a strong Brooklyn accent, Sara weaves tasteful irreverence with sharp Dyke politics and New York feminist angst.

Kwanzaa Percussion Ensemble:

Kwanzaa strives to build bridges between cultures
performance, workshops, and education.

John Calvi: Gay Singer/Songwriter composed Meg Christian's hit, "The Ones Who Weren't Here"

Queen City Cabaret:

Celebrating ourselves and our friends in song.

Lisa McCormick: Putney singer/songwriter Lisa McCormick brings a strong voice and powerful writing talent to the stage. Her rock/folk is not afraid to address the issues head-on, with disarming insight and wit and a contagious contemporary sound.

Virginia and the Wolves:

An all Women's Dance Band, they play everything from the Rolling Stones to the B-52s. They get a crowd on their feet moments into the first song and leave them clamoring for more.

Pride Night Events, Saturday, June 26th

8pm, Flynn Theatre

The Fabulous Flirtations:

Internationally renowned gay a cappella group.

9pm sharp, Last Elm Cafe
corner of N. Winooski Ave. and North St.

Steph Pappas:

Virtuoso screaming guitar backed by vocals so cutting edge they leave open veins pumping. Not for the faint hearted!!

Diane Horstmyer:

Born to sing the blues, this artist will nail you with a stylish twang as well. No wonder she's back by popular demand!

