Hidden From History Course

Community College of Vermont (CCV) will offer a 3 credit course entitled Hidden From History: Homosexuality and Western Civilization, in the fall semester. The course will be a survey of attitudes of various societies toward homosexuals and homosexuality from the beginnings of Western Civilization to contemporary times. The class will include discussion, assigned reading from textbooks and handouts, videos, weekly lectures, reports and two term projects.

Taught by Charles Edmond, the course will meet on Tuesday evenings from 6-9 pm starting September 14 and running to December 16. It is a 3 credit, graded course and will be held at the Springfield CCV site. For more information or to register, contact CCV at 380 River St, Springfield, VT 05165, (802) 886-2748. ▼

Human Rights Commission Update

Jim Morgan

Since the enactment of the "lesbian and gay rights" bill on July 1st, 1992, the Vermont Human Rights Commission has begun investigation of six complaints of discrimination based on sexual orientation. Two of these complaints allege disparate treatment in the area of housing, while four complaints allege discrimination in the area of public accommodations.

If you believe that you have been discriminated against because of your sexual orientation, you can call the Vermont Human Rights Commission at 828-2480 (voice/TTD), 133 State St., Montpelier, VT 05633-6301. ▼
