

ZOE LEWIS AND JULIE WHEELER ARE THE LESBIAN LOUNGE LIZARDS

They're hot, they're hysterical, they're lyrical, they're lesbian!

The best show to hit Burlington ever is sure to knock your "Doc 's" off! With their tickling humor and obvious professional musical talent, The Lizards put an unexpected spin on many old favorite jazz and musical tunes. You'll hear everything from "Small Dyke Community Blues - Everywhere I go my ex-lovers go there too" to "when Martina plays tennis, or K.D. Lang sings, these are a few of my favorite things." As Julie works the crowd with her irresistible southern accent, Jazz pianist Zoe alternates between egging Julie on and capturing the show with her coy British charm. Their comical banter is lively, lewd, and unfortunately too risqué to reprint. You'll just have to see the show that packs 'em in, in P-Town every summer night!

SATURDAY, NOV. 20TH AT 8PM
