

Whoomp, There It Is!

currently represents Windham County as State Senator. Both Costle and Backus have indicated that they would support national gay rights legislation. For lesbian and gay Vermonters, the question now becomes, "Should position on national gay rights legislation be a litmus test for U.S. Senate candidates?" If the answer to that question is yes, all major party candidates appear to pass the test.

While the positions and experiences of the candidates vying for one of Vermont's U.S. Senate seats are diverse, their individual positions on national gay rights legislation is similar. With that in mind, lesbian and gay Vermonters now have the responsibility of determining the level of each candidate's support and weigh positions on other issues of equal importance. ▼
