Chicago columnist, teacher, and confirmed lesbomaniac brings her unique humor and political insight to this year's conference. Jorjet has published over 400 interviews, reviews articles and features in over 30 nation-wide publications; and currently writes her Lesbomania column for "Outlines", Chicago's lesbian and gay news journal. Lesbomania, a collection of her columns, has recently been published by Vermont's own New Victoria Publishers. In addition to Jorjet's keynote address to open the conference, you can look forward to her Saturday evening presentation of "Lesbomania, An Evening of Matriarchal Mayhem".... an hilarious slide show combining music, art and readings from some of her favorite columns.
