Five Women

wearing the same dress

by Alan Ball

directed by Veronica López-Schultz

A delightful, contemporary comedy about what happens and what's said when the five identically clad bridesmaids of a very ostentatious wedding meet behind closed doors to avoid the day's proceedings. We learn what they really think about the bride, their families, their friendships, and particularly MEN.

They are Frances, a painfully sweet but sheltered fundamentalist; Mindy, the cheerful, wise-cracking lesbian sister of the groom; Georgeanne, whose heartbreak over her own failed marriage triggers outrageous behavior; Meredith, the bride's younger sister whose precocious rebelliousness masks a dark secret; and Trisha, a jaded beauty whose die-hard cynicism about men is called into question when she meets Tripp, a charming usher to whom there is more than meets the eye.

As the afternoon wears on, these five very different women joyously discover a common bond in this wickedly funny, irreverent and touching celebration of the women's spirit.
