impact of AIDS to light in our community," says Ostrom. She also noted that Rutland is fortunate to have this opportunity since the Quilt is rarely displayed in smaller, rural communities.

The Power of Thread Host Committee is looking for a minimum of twenty volunteers to set up and break down the panels and a minimum of one hundred and fifty volunteers to be Quilt Monitors. As a monitor, people will be safeguarding both the Quilt and its visitors. Monitors must understand their responsibilities by attending a training meeting on either October 7th, from 1-4 or October 15th from 9-noon. Further information on training will be sent to anyone who registers. In addition, if enough volunteers can be found, the names of people who have died from HIV/AIDS will be read aloud as the Quilt is viewed.

To volunteer, contact Karen Ostrom at the Chaffee Art Center at 775-0356. People are also working on new panels that will be permanently added to the Quilt as it continues on from Rutland. If you would like to create a panel or help others working on panels, contact Peggy Bahnson at 773-4143.
