

Support Group Forms in the Adirondacks

During January, a lesbian and gay support group formed in the Tri-Lakes area of the Adirondacks. (Lake Placid, Saranac Lake, Tupper Lake area). We have weekly meetings and we would like to invite men and women to join us in a safe, anonymous atmosphere. We all know how difficult rural living can be and this is a reason a support network is important. There is no one moderator: we all attempt to help one another. We're just beginning and looking forward to growing and supporting one another.
