presents

Richard Greenberg's

EASTERN

STANDARD

a comedy about modern relationships

Drew, the lonely romantic, has notions of "happily ever after" with Peter.

Stephen, the disenchanting architect, has his own designs on Phoebe.

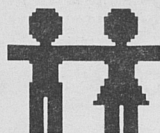

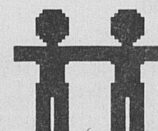

Phoebe, the ruthless Wall Street wizard, has an inside-investor boyfriend.

Peter, the gorgeous but cynical realist, has a dark secret.

Ellen, the recently unemployed, has dreams and a plan for a better world.

And May, the foul-mouthed schizophrenic, finally has her medication.

What an unlikely sextet to spend a summer together!

A portion of the ticket sales will be donated to Vermont Cares.
