Oueer Son

V. Seitchik

Portrait of parents coping with their children's lesbian or gay sexual orientation. 48 min

A Place of Rage

P. Parmar

An exuberant celebration of African American women featuring interviews with Angela Davis, June Jordan and Alice Walker. 52 min

Sunday, March 26, 1995

West Coast Crones

M. Muir

Lesbians between the ages of 61 and 76 discuss sexuality, their lives internalized and externalized ageism, and the process of growing old. 28 min

Things We Said Today

J. Miller-Monzon

Clementine meets Jo, in whom she discovers a kindred spirit. 34min

Intrepidissima

M. Balletbo-Coll

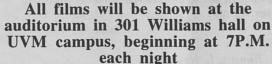

A cathartic triumph for every little tomboy ever forced to go shopping for dresses. 7 min

Massillon

W. Jones

Details the trials of growing up gay in a small American town, 70 min

The Festival is Free and open to the public. Wheelchair access is located in the rear of Williams Hall.

Sponsered by The Student Political Awareness and Responsibility Collective, The Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual Alliance, and The Office of Multicultural Affairs

Flamina

Burington's Third Annual Queer Film Festival