ABOUT THE SHOW

Sometimes falling in love can open the door to a closet of family secrets. For Grace and Milly it is the beginning of a new found love. This delicately spun romance is written by VT Playwright Jan Donley and directed by Stephen Sharp, director of Green Candle's internationally acclaimed production of Feeding the Moonfish. A Closet Year will leave you cheering for the promise of love that lies within us all.

The production stars veteran Green Candle members Tracey Lynn Girdich and Ruth Wallin. Ms. Girdich is best known for her acclaimed roles in Green Candle's productions of 'Moonfish' and In The Blood. Her performances have been called "stellar" by Scotland's national paper The Scotsman, and "absorbing and highly accomplished" by Scotland's Evening News.
