

THE MOST ACCLAIMED PLAY OF THE DECADE!

Winner of the Pulitzer Prize, Tony Award for Best Play,
Critics' Circle Award, and London's Evening Standard Award

"Fiercely humane, gloriously informed, bitchy, compassionate, uncom-promised... also falling-down funny..."

Linda Winer,
Newsday

"Paints the big picture of a troubled time—the struggle to find a moral, spiritual and personal ground in an era when those values seemed to vaporize."

Steve Winn,
San Francisco Chronicle

"Something rare, dangerous and harrowing... a roman candle hurled into a drawing room..."

Nicholas de Jongh,
London Evening Standard

"Daring and dazzling! The most ambitious American play of our time: an epic that ranges from earth to heaven; focuses on politics, sex and religion; transports us to Washington, the Kremlin, the South Bronx, Salt Lake City and Antarctica; deals with Jews, Mormons, WASPs, blacks; switches between realism and fantasy, from the tragedy of AIDS to the camp comedy of drag queens to the death or at least the absconding of God."

Jack Kroll,
Newsweek

"A vast, miraculous play... provocative, witty and deeply upsetting... a searching and radical rethinking of American political drama..."

Frank Rich,
New York Times

"The best American play in forty years."

Craig Lucas

"A victory for theatre, for the transforming power of the imagination to turn devastation into beauty."

John Lahr,
New Yorker

"Establishes Kushner as a poet and moral visionary in love with the theatre yet awake in the world."

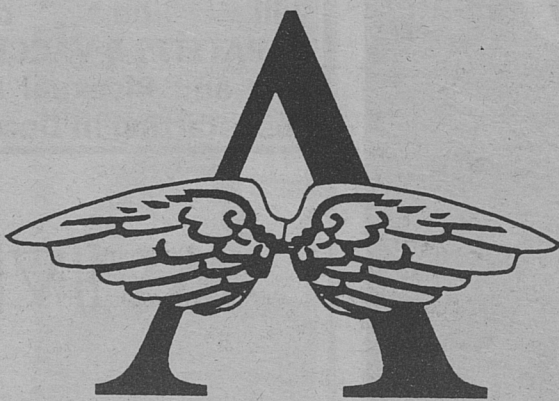

Don Shewey,
Village Voice
