

- 12 LIVE. michael feinstein in concert
- 13 ART. compost gallery in the kingdom
- 16 CYBERSHARK. autumn approaches

OITM'S
MONTHLY GUIDE TO ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT
IN VERMONT

What's Hot?

We are, of Course! No two drag queens have done more for the community than Noel and Yolanda, and yet they are willing to do more! Come celebrate and support OITM and local gender transcendent talent with accompanying bands at Lyndon State College on October 17th, 8 PM. See ad for details.

photo Brenda Ladd

THE THERAPY SISTERS

GOOD FOR THE SOUL ▲

Austin Texas' The Therapy Sisters, Lexington Kentucky's Wishing Chair, and our very own Steph Pappas will squeeze into the Burlington Coffee house for a show on October 9. Steph Pappas, who is a nationally renowned goddess of the guitar, and The Therapy Sisters, who create beautiful folk music with an incredibly precise sense of humor, digging at our lovely patriarchy and all of its bizarre twists and inconsistencies join Wishing Chair who are a melting pot of folk, roots rock, country, Celtic, and world music with poetic lyrics. Don't miss these guys, and if you haven't heard Steph yet, what are you waiting for? (Also appearing (minus Steph) in Norwich at Dee n Ro's on the River October 10th, 8pm courtesy of New Victoria Publishers and Amelia's Underground Flying Society and Keene October 16th)

photo Gordon Miller

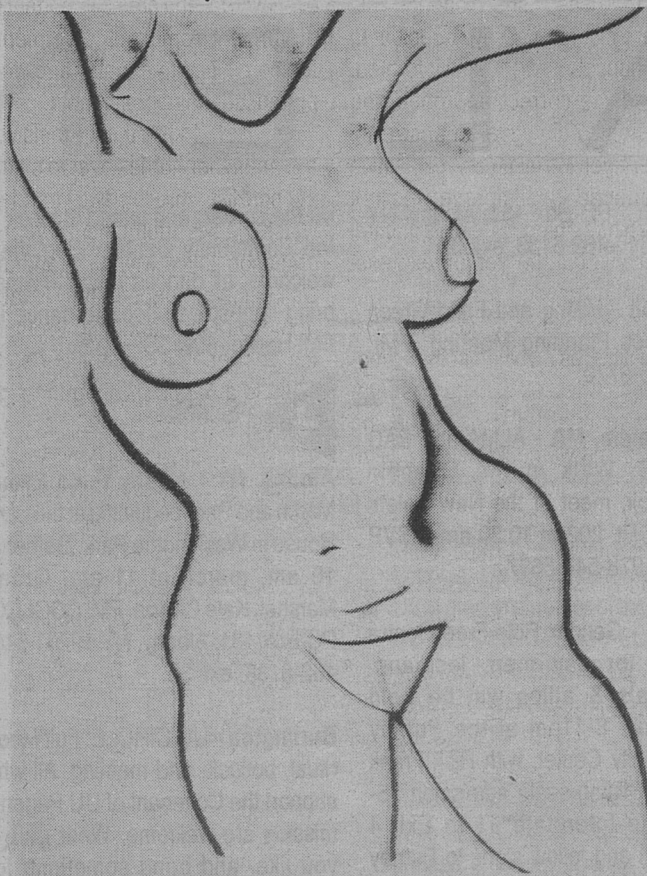

▲ ENOUGH ROPE?

The Loeb Leopold murder in 1924 was the Menedez brothers of the times. A nation was horrified as it was revealed two lovers killed a child for the sheer sake of pulling off the perfect crime. The association of homosexuality with homicide has persisted ever since. The film Rope was loosely based on the murder, with the two protagonists sharing an apartment and an extremely ambiguous relationship; a good example of how Hollywood would more easily explore murder than it would same sex love. The Theater Factory takes on a stage production of Rope on the 50th anniversary of the films release.

RESOURCES TO SPARE ►

Central Vermont's Art Resource Association will be holding a show at The Fletcher Free Library from October 2nd through October 30th. The reception will be on October 11th from 3 to 5 PM and the show will include many of the organizations members such as Eva Schectman, who created "Gesture Series I; Spring" shown here from Charcoal on newsprint.

CALENDAR

october

1 THURSDAY

Bristol - 5:30 p.m. Bristol Village Green Addison County Family Tree Project Dedication Ceremony, join Addison County Women In Crisis, Geiger of Austria and Bristol residents as they make official their commitment to ending family violence. Featuring speakers Sen. Elizabeth Ready, Willow Wheelock, Kathi Apgar, Jim Bruce, and Bob Hall. Music by the Bristol Band.

Hanover, NH - Collis Common Ground, 7 pm, "Growing Up in Gay & Lesbian Families" - Charlotte Patterson, Professor of Psychology at the University of Virginia, will talk about the effects of nontraditional family configurations upon development among children who grow up in them and the role of sexual orientation in human development.

2 FRIDAY

Albany, NY - Albany Pride Event: Casswood Cup Golf Tournament at Sycamore Golf Course. FMI CDGLCC, PO Box 131, Albany, NY 12201 516-462-6138, ext. 32.

Albany, NY - Albany Pride Event: Entertainment Extravaganza with MEN OUT LOUD and comedian Michele Balon at the Egg. FMI CDGLCC, PO Box 131, Albany, NY 12201 516-462-6138, ext. 32.

Montpelier - "Sweet Apocalypse" - Phoenix Rising Gallery, Join Rhoda Carroll from 5 to 7 pm for the opening of her show of new watercolor and pastel landscapes, skyscapes and still lifes. A faculty member at Vermon College for the past 25 years, Carroll is making a midlife trasiotion from poetry to painting.

CALENDAR
CONTINUES, p12