University of Vermont to hire first time Coordinator for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Questioning, and Ally (LGBTQA) Services:

Nominations and applications are invited for the position of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Questioning, and Ally (LGBTQA) Services Coordinator at the University of Vermont. The position will be half-time for two years with possible transition to full time after that time. Master's Degree in Education, Humanities, Women's Studies, Social Services or related field and two to three years related program development and implementation experience required, or an equivalent combination of education and experience from which comparable knowledge can be acquired. Knowledge and awareness of LGBTQA issues and concerns essential.

Responsibilities to include: to assess and identify educational, developmental, social and safety needs and to coordinate programs for students, staff, and faculty specific to LGBTQA issues. Identify and develop and external funding and programming resources, monitor program budgets and develop and provide mentoring support with general supervision from Executive Officer, Cultural Pluralism and Racial Equality.

Interested candidates should submit a statement of interest in the position and a complete curriculum vitae, including names, addresses and telephone numbers of three references to:

LGBTQA Search Committee
 Center for Cultural Pluralism
 461 Main Street
 University of Vermont
 Burlington, VT 05405

Applications will be reviewed beginning 9/8 to 10/9/98.

The University of Vermont is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer with a strong commitment to racial, cultural, and ethnic diversity. Nominations of and applications from bisexual and transgender people, and individuals from a broad spectrum of backgrounds are encouraged.
