Out in the Mountains welcomes your letters. Although we will withhold names from printing upon request, the letter must be accompanied by a verifiable name and address in order to be considered for publication. We try to print every letter we receive, but reserve the right to edit for space and clarity. Letters are also subject to the editorial policy stated in the masthead.

Ferrisburg Area Churches Welcome Newcomers

Editor:
The Ferrisburg and North Ferrisburg Methodist churches, under the 1 year guidance of Pastor Mari Clark, have started their new church year. New people are welcome to come to a small church with a woman pastor, restarting the volunteer choir twice a month, and a new organist helping the senior organist with the service music at the North Ferrisburg church. These are warm welcoming congregations in either town. Services are Sunday 9:45 a.m. at Ferrisburg, and 11:00 a.m. at North Ferrisburg.

Thanks,
Sharon Stevens

Pride Vermont Thanks the Rainbow Business Association

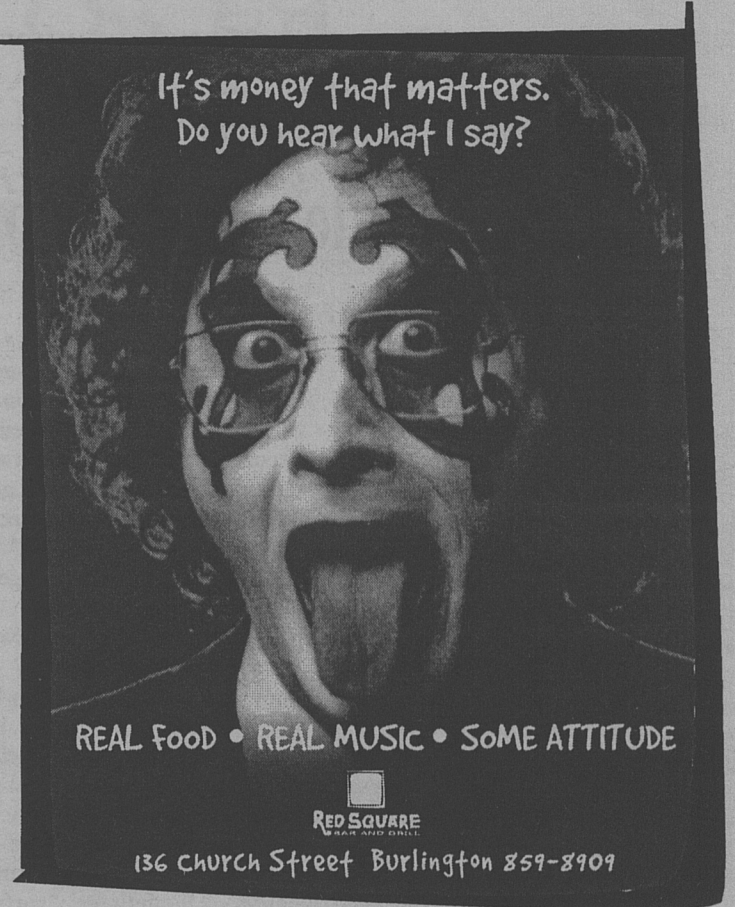

Editor:
I am writing on behalf of the Pride Committee to openly give a thank you to the RBA for their recent contribution to the committee. About two weeks ago the Pride Committee received a thank you letter from them with an open invitation to their recent mixer at Loretta's in Essex Junction. At the end of the evening we also received a donation from them for $250.00. So we would like to thank the RBA for all their work with the Pride Guide, the invitation to Loretta's, and the great donation.

Editor Asks for Opinions

Readers:
Lately we have had a shortage of letters to the editor. I sure would like to hear more from you about what is going on in your minds. What are we doing right? What are we doing wrong? What is happening in your area. I know you have opinions. Let us hear from you!
