

gayity

the agency's Speaker's Bureau and maintains a system for tracking speaker activity, performance and billed services. Responds to requests for information and materials; develops, maintains and revises educational curriculum and informational materials; develops and documents appropriate learning activities for participants; and monitors and evaluates the effectiveness of presentations, materials, and programs. Provides support services and trainings for other community based GLBTQ youth groups, high school Gay/Straight Alliances, and college GLBTQ groups. Works with the executive director and the Board of Directors to develop annual and long range plans for direct services; develop annual or multi-year budgeting; writing, monitoring and reporting grants directly related to Educational Development programs. The ideal candidate will have a minimum of a Bachelor of Sciences degree in Education or a closely related human services field and/or equivalent work experience, as well as at least one year of classroom or teaching experience. A competitive salary and benefits package will be offered based on experience and educational background. Candidates for either position must demonstrate an understanding of adolescent development, human sexuality, coming out processes, sexual orientation and gender identity. Both positions require some travel, and some evening and weekend hours. Applicants should send a letter of application, current resume, and three letters of recommendation by June 12, 2000 to: Executive Director Outright Vermont PO Box 5235 Burlington, VT 05402 EOE — Minorities and women are encouraged to apply

▼Americorps* VISTA @

Outright Vermont Position: Program Assistant A* VISTA will assist in developing and implementing youth leadership programs for gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgendered youth, as well as the coordination of the Outright Speaker's Bureau, and school-based Gay/Straight Alliances. Please send a resume and cover letter to: Burlington's Community and Economic Development Office Room 32, City Hall Burlington, VT 05401 FMI call (802) 865-7170 (06/00)

Seeking Participants for Caregiving Study. Kristina Hash, a social work PhD student at Virginia Commonwealth University, is seeking gay men and lesbians over the age of 50 who are currently or have previously provided care for chronically ill, same-sex partners to participate in a research interview. Interview questions will focus on experiences and life changes that have resulted from caregiving, or changes that have occurred since the death or relocation of a partner. All information will remain confidential. The researcher is involved in the gay community and has experience working with older adults. If you are interested in participating or for more information, please contact Kristina at (804) 266-5136 or by email at s2kmhash@atlas.vcu.edu. Collect calls accepted. (06/00)

Employment Wanted

▼ Relocating to Burlington August 1. Colby grad, experienced Audio-Visual Technician, responsible and reliable worker. Handy with tools, excellent troubleshooting ability, extremely creative. Will consider any employment opportunity. Please email dyke2watchout4@chickmail.com. (07/00)

College Student Looking For Summer Employment.

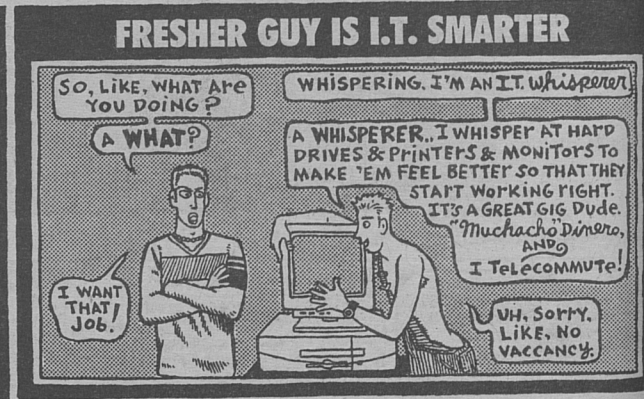

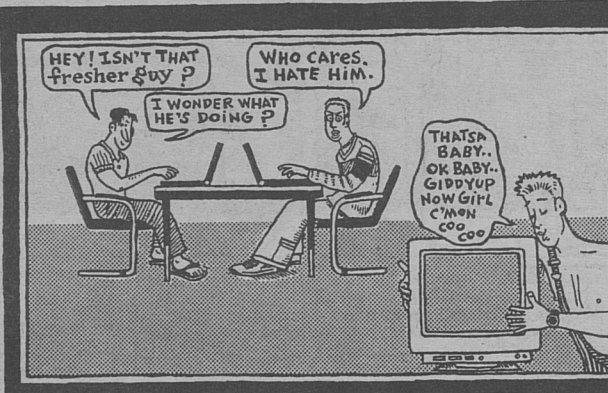

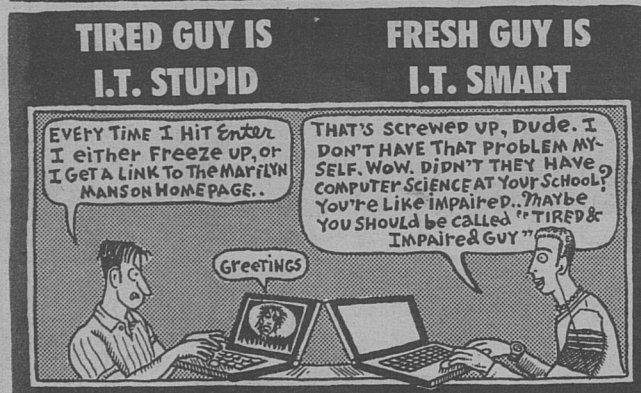

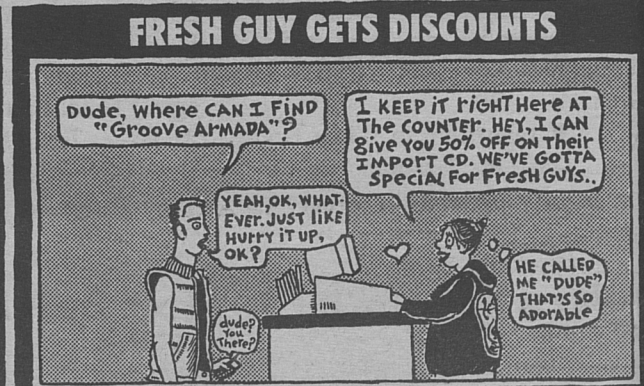

Responsible, have a variety of work experiences, great with kids, have my own transportation. Available the first of June. Open to any type of work, resume and references available upon request. Call Joe at 802-654-2184 or e-mail jkelleher@smcv.edu (06/00)

Groups

Infertility Group. A time limited therapy group is forming this spring for women who are experiencing infertility. The focus of the group will be on gaining support, clarity and empowerment through sharing with others this powerful and difficult experience. The group will be composed of 6-8 women and will run for 8 sessions. At the end of this period the group will open up for new members. Contact Patricia Jenkins MSW, LICSW at 413-584-2590 for more information and an initial interview. 16 Center Street, Suite #503, Northampton MA 01060. (06/00)

The Mostly Unfabulous Social Life of Ethan Green...

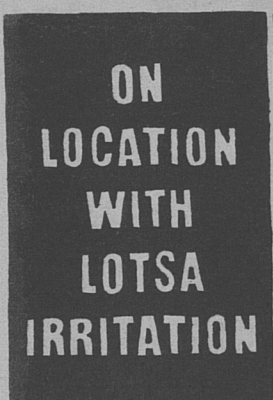

...by Eric Orner

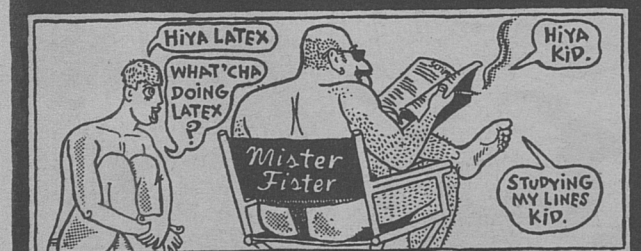

www.stonewallinn.com eorner@bellatlantic.net

The Mostly Unfabulous Social Life of Ethan Green...

...by Eric Orner

But Corey isn't in to either of them, & prefers to hang between takes with the aging-daddy-legend, Latex Fister.

Also, there's a nasty dispute over Howard Goldberg, the best "fluffer" in the business. A stole him from P by offering a few extra bucks an hour

The film's location is a laundromat somewhere in the Valley. Pasivo keeps bugging you about the title. He thinks it's stupid.

